ANNETTE JOHNSON RECOGNIZED AS A TOP 100 MBE

CRMSDC awards CMT Services, Inc. as one of the best in the region

Hyattsville, MD, September 7, 2016– The Capital Region Minority Supplier Development Council announced that Annette Johnson, President and CEO of CMT Services, Inc. was named a 2016 Top 100 MBE winner. This award recognizes owners of minority business enterprises in Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia who have demonstrated exceptional entrepreneurial accomplishments, a high level of professionalism, and have made substantial contributions to their community.

The Top 100 MBE Awards, created in 2007 and evolved through a need to recognize and celebrate the creativity and innovation of regional MBEs who are role models and inspire the entire community.

This year, for the first time, CRMSDC is combining the awards ceremony with their annual awards. The Top 100 MBE awards will be presented at CRMSDC's 35th Annual Leaders and Legends Awards Ceremony on September 30th. The event will be held at the Clarice Smith Center for Performing Arts, DeKelboum Concert Hall, on the University of Maryland College Park campus.

Sharon R. Pinder, CRMSDC's President and CEO, says, "Our board of directors and our corporate members congratulate the 2016 Top 100 MBEs on their stellar accomplishments. We are appreciative of their contributions to our region's economic engine."

CRMSDC is a not-for-profit economic development organization supporting growth in Maryland, the District of Columbia, and Northern Virginia through programs and services that help corporations enhance the diversity and innovation of their supply chains.
