CMT Services, Inc. to host The Inaugural Business Development Reserve Program (BDRP) Graduation Ceremony

Hyattsville, Maryland (May 21, 2018) - CMT Services Inc. (CMT), a certified Minority-Woman Owned Small Business based in Prince Georges' County, announces it will host the Inaugural Business Development Reserve Program (BDRP), Graduation Ceremony on Wednesday, June 6, 2018 at the College Park Marriott and Conference Center.

The Business Development Reserve Program (BDRP) is a transformational training platform designed to provide local and small businesses with strategies and tools to gain knowledge and skills to effectively compete for procurement opportunities within government agencies and commercial industries:

CMT designed, developed, and managed this unique program to provide integrated instructional training courses and workshops to enhance and strengthen the capabilities and proficiencies of qualified small businesses in five (5) business industry areas: Construction, Health Services, Information Technology, Non-Professional Services, and Professional Services.

"Our mission was very simple ... provide effective tools, resources, and growth strategies to enhance Business owners' ability to leverage their company's primary service intangibles, and most importantly, enable them to better position their companies to compete in this evolving 21st century business environment." said Annette Johnson, President & CEO of CMT. This Graduation Ceremony is the validation of the accomplishments of the Graduates' and the fulfillment of the BDRP's Mission!

"As a seasoned information technology services company, The BDRP program provided us with an opportunity to step back, re-assess and put in place an action plan to address both our strategic and tactical plans moving forward."

Sherreen L. Ogletree, President & CEO
